

PART - II

Question: 2 : precis

Topic: The post Colonial Viewpoints

The profound effect of imperialism on the mentality of colonials is illustrated by the domineering mindsets of colonizers, a subject often neglected by scholars. Colonizers portray themselves as civilizers of the world, while dismissing resistance as unjustified. However, colonized are confused between the memory of exploitation and a soft corner for civilizational concepts. Although, colonization may be considered as manipulative, but colonizers consider decolonization as moral decline. Hence, the post imperial viewpoints are blended with regards to emotional and ideological concepts.

original paragraph words : 181

Precis words : 80

Question : 3

1. Bashiran's family continue collecting charity even after becoming financially stable because collecting charity becomes kind of business for them. They became used to of collecting charity and think that their financial stability is because of charity and zakat collections.

2- Charity distribution in Karachi is not that effective because non-deserving people also collect charity despite being financially stable. Hence, it is difficult to identify deserving and non-deserving people. Wealthy donors should verify the recipients properly whether they are deserving or not.

3- The phrase "No business is bad, and no religion is greater than business" means collecting zakat and charity despite being financially stable is a kind of business for the recipients of zakat and charity and they justify their immoral deeds calling it a business and separating it from religion.

4- People like Bashirani's family might hesitate to stop collecting charity because they believe that their financial stability is due to the charity. If they stop collecting charity they might become poor again.

5- There would be adverse long-term impacts of unchecked charity practices on society. Unchecked charity practices would be beneficial for those who collect charity despite being financially stable. On the Other hand deserving poor people would not get charity despite being in need. Resultantly, poor would remain poor and mean people would add up to their wealth. Consequently, the poor who does not get charity for their needs, they would indulge in other illegal activities to fulfill their needs.

Question: 4

Corrected sentences

i - He had hardly left the room, when the phone was ringing.

ii - Neither the teacher nor the student know the answer.

v - If I had seen him, I would have told him the truth.

vi - The committee has announced their decision.

vii - He is one of those writers who have won many awards.

Question: 5 : punctuation

A As the rain poured outside, the detective turned to the suspect and said, "I know you're hiding something." The suspect looked away then muttered, "What makes you think that your silence for one", replied the detective, "besides you were seen near the warehouse that night?" "That's impossible", he snapped, "I was out of the town." "Really", the detective leaned forward and placed a photo on the table, "care to explain this?" then the suspect stared at the image, his eyes narrowing, "where did you get that", he whispered. "That doesn't matter", said the detective, "what matters is truth?"

B i - The manager acted strictly upon the terms of the contract.

iii - she was quick to jump onto conclusions without verifying facts.

vi - Their house is adjacent to a noisy construction site.

vii - The Committee is composed of experts from various fields

viii - He was charged of contempt of court after his remarks.

Day: _____

Date: _____

Answer no # 6

1- Blurt: He blurted out the secret out of confusion

Blest: He is such a blest that he blurted out the secret with out thinking of the consequences.

Answer no # 7

Ramanogen was a British-Indian Mathematician whose work is still being used in Space technology. Due ~~to~~ to unfavourable conditions and lack of interest in other subjects except Maths, he was unable to get into college. Finally, a British Professor, Hardy, took him to the Cambridge, where he was awarded with BA degree.

A number, 2520, is his ~~is~~ discovery, which is divisible with all the numbers from one to nine. Ramanogen was Vegetarian. Hence, could not get appropriate nutrition. Due to which he could live till 32 years only and died in 1920. A feature film had made on this in India.