

38811-shafiahFayyaz-068 Assignment #01

Question no# 01

Brain Drain :

Causes and consequencesBrainstorm :-

consequences of brain drain are given below.

Thesis Statement :-

* Brain drain is not just a loss of talent; it's a loss of potential, a loss of innovation, and a loss of hope for the future.

Introduction :-

Brain drain is a term which means migration of individuals due to lack of opportunities, salaries from one country or organization to another country or organization for better life.

Unfortunately, Brain drain is an global issue but in South Asia this issue has significant concern.

Individuals are frustrated due to their less salaries and increase in inflation / Expensiveness of goods.

Some factors like family pressure, political instability, Better opportunities in abroad has influence on someone to leave the country or organization.

Most of the talented qualified people prefer to settle in abroad for better facilities and jobs opportunities.

Brain drain is a big loss for developing nations country. If a country consistently loses its competent workforce, it can indeed hinder economic growth