Q.5.A

As the rain poured outside, the detective turned to the suspect and said, I know you're hiding something. The suspect looked away and the muttered, What makes you think that? Your silence, for one, replied the detective. Besides, you were seen near the warehouse that night. That's impossible, he snapped. I was out of town. Really? The detective leaned forward and placed a photo on the table. Care to explain this? Then the suspect stared at the image, his eyes narrowing. Where did you get that? he whispered. That doesn't matter, said the detective. What matter is the truth.

Q.1

Ramanojn was a British Indian mathematician, whose work is still used in space technology. As a child, he was not to get admission in college due to irregular circumstance and lack of interest in subjects other than mathematics. Eventually a British Professor, Hardy, took him to Cambridge, where he was awarded with B.A degree. The number 2520 was his discovery. The property of this number is that it is divisible by all numbers. Ramanuja was Shakabari. Due to the lack of proper nutrition in British, this genius reformed in 1920 at the age of only 32. A feature film has been made on it in India.
