The Divided Legacy of Colonialism

Precis: Title: Colonial Mindset and its Impacts
Postcolonial scholars often emphasized on psychological structure of domination which shows how colonial mentality entered in colonizer and colonized mind. Colonizers like Britain and France developed a view of showed oppressed people as beneficiaries which was illogical to both rebellions and also to colonial center. Colonized people often showed mixed feeling of victimization and development as in Africa. Post colonial <sup>era</sup> state may see colonization as unjust but colonizers may see it as mere ~~destruction~~ <sup>and</sup> loss of territory and morality. This affects post-colonial mentality where people remain confused in their previous history and ideologies.
