

Date: / /

Topic: Delayed Marriages: Causes And Consequences

Outline:

1- Introduction:

Thesis Statement: Delayed marriages are caused by economic factors, social & cultural norms, personal preferences and family expectations, have far-reaching consequences like demographic imbalances, psychological distress, social stigma and other health issues.

2- Crunch Paragraph:

3 - Causes of delayed Marriage.

1- Economic Factors:

- Unemployment and poverty.
- High cost of Dowry
- Inability to afford expenses related to marriage.
- struggle for stable financial status leading to missed marriagable age.

2- Social Expectations & Cultural Norms:

- To marry in same cast or community
- Waiting for elders siblings to marry first.

Date: / /

3- Personal preferences and priorities:

- a) prioritizing career goal & education.
- b) seeking specific type of partner.

3- Consequences Of Delayed Marriage.

- a) Delay can lead to overall fertility rate, impacting population growth.
- b) Lead to psychological distress.
- c) Social stigma and cultural pressure increases.
- d) Increases the risk of metabolic syndrome.
- e) Incidents of socially disgraceful activities like rap cases increased.

4- Conclusion.

Date: / /

The Essay:

"Love recognizes no barriers. It jumps hurdle, leaps fences, penetrates walls to arrive at its destination full of hope" (Maya Angelou). These poignant words of Angelou capture the essence of Love's unbridled power, yet they also highlight the barrier and trouble in this path in the modern age. In today's fast paced world love and marriages have become a challenge for everyone. An increasing no. of adults are now delaying marriages due to different factors like prolonged education, career growth and to meet societal standards. This shift raises important questions about the changing nature of relationships; the role of marriage in modern society, and the potential long term effects on individuals and families. The delayed in marriages are caused by economic factors, social & cultural norms, personal preferences and family expectations and have far-reaching consequences like demographic imbalances, psychological issues, social stigma and cultural pressures and health related issues.