Title:-

Glorification of Civil Service

Civil Service in Pakistan is dream of most of the citizens due to its eminent nature. With the passage of time and due to media observations have changed, job is necessity of survival. This dream has practical reasons like job security, respect, well pay off and govt job is the door to enter in various powerful circles. Some are obsessed with their dream. The tough competition of CSS has changed the culture where success is not just a milestone, its an evaluation either achieving all or nothing by sacrificing all leisure over officer's seat. In today's world bureaucrat is social media figure depicting life beyond hardworks, promoting luxurious and respectable life. It seems to be good performance in front of camera rather than real performance in dusty official corridors. The result is strange because bureaucrats are social media influencers rather than good problem solvers. Currently symbol and authority image matter more than power of authority which inspires the youth.

Comprehension.

1 Food is linked to various situations like if weather is exotic, we need food, every ~~debate~~ ^{gathering} and event discussion end at food desire. Food has a connection with entertainment even in cricket matches, cinemas and concerts. People show more interest in food rather than the activity.

2. Cricket matches are often more about food than the game itself because Pakistanis don't try to explore other forms of entertainment and due to non satisfactory arrangements at the venue of entertainment.
