

English Precise

Q4:

i. The government wants to keep the plan to themselves.

The government wants to keep the plan to itself.

ii. Knowledge of computer sciences is very important nowadays.

Knowledge of computer sciences is very important now-a-days.

iii. We met for breakfast yesterday.

We met at breakfast yesterday.

v. Running down the street, the bag fell from his hands.

Running down the street, he fell the bag from his hands.

viii. The lawyer tried to cite the correct law, but his opponent accused him of making false sites.

The lawyer tried to cite the correct law, but his opponent accused him of making false cites.

QNo 5:

A. Punctuation:

Let us explore the meaning of the quote, "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you", said the teacher. The student replied, "Does it mean that if I want kindness I must first show kindness?" The teacher nodded and said, "Exactly! It is about treating people the way you wish to be treated." The student smiled and added, "So, if I respect others, I am more likely to be respected in return." "Yes", the teacher concluded, "That is the golden rule of life."

B. Prepositions:

- i- The professor insisted on our completing the assignment before the deadline despite the university being closed ~~for~~ holidays.
- ii- She has been working ~~for~~ on a solution that lies hidden beneath the surface of the problem.

iii Success often depends not merely on efforts but also on the opportunities presented to us.

iv - The lawyer argued upon the proposals in front of the very committee that had voted in favor of it last year.

v - His reputation rests on principles he never strayed from, even when under severe pressure.

Q No 6: Idiom

i - A different kettle of fish:
You must be very careful in your business as the market is full of different kettle of fish.

iv - Sour grapes:

Priyanka is not happy with Preeti's success; ~~as~~ it is sour grapes for Priyanka because she could not achieve first position.

vii - To raise a red flag Ali raised a red flag at the site of accident to prevent any additional mishaps.

iii- To have other fish to fry
I could not waste my time on pitty arguments; I have also other fish to fry.

Q7: Translation:

Hellen Keller, in her autobiography, expressed her wish ~~that~~ about how she would have spent three days of her life if she had been able to see the world. She says that, on the first day, she would see her dear ones to behold them in the light of affection. On the second day, she wished to see the beauty of nature like the sunlight, trees, flowers and the sky. On the third day, to observe the creativity of humans, she wished to see the splendor of the world. For her, those three days will be sufficient to convert the darkness of life into light.

QNO3: Comprehension:

Q1:

To show the link of food with different situations in Pakistan, the writer gives many examples. Like, at the time of rain, the Pakistanis go for Pakoras, in the heatwave, they eat falooda and in depression, they demand for Haleem.

QNO2:

According to text, cricket matches in Pakistan often become more about food than the game itself because the connection between food and entertainment has grown so deep that it is an emotion. It does not matter how much the game itself may be stressful, but the gol gappa outside the stadium would lighten the mood.

QNO3:

The writer's attitude towards Pakistan amusement parks is sarcastic. The writer tacitly explained the ^{bad} condition of parks. The writer mentioned that one ride in amusement park will lead to back pain.

Q4:

"Ironically, this obsession with food entertainment has created a society where waistlines expand but horizons don't. It means that obsession with food has resulted in a society where people are more prone to unhealthy lifestyle which lead to obesity and many other disease. While the knowledge and inventions do not expand."

QNO5:

If Pakistan had developed entertainment industries, people's reliance on food for recreation would have been different. They would go to parks for recreation, cinemas for movies rather then go to food street. In this way, they would lead a healthy lifestyle.

QNO2 Precise:

Civil service — A prestigious job in Pakistan

The civil service in Pakistan is considered as one of the most prestigious careers. With time, it has evolved from public service to a mix of necessity and privileges. Compared to private jobs, civil services offers good income, job security, power and social status. For some people, it has become an obsession. They sacrifice their personal habits and mental well-being to secure that officer's seat. In today's Pakistan, some bureaucrats embrace Youtube and Tiktok, influencing the youth with designer handbags, slow motion videos alongwith caption "serving the nation".

Some argue that these civil servant influencers inspire the youth, while some critics argue that glamorous distract from work of governance. So in a country where symbols matter most, the image must be as powerful as youth's authority itself.