

Q#02

Precis (Bureaucrats: Inspiration or distraction)

The civil service is one of the most secure career in the Pakistan. Where private sector doesnot ensure the guarantee of job, the civil service provides lifetime job security with the change of time. The vision of Profession of CSS has also evolved, once it was only about Public Service, and now it has become the stage for personal branding and the source of power as it offers multiple opportunities than years of hardwork in other jobs.

Moreover CSS aspirants are ready to sacrifice their personal lives and mental health for the sake of pursuing the civil service.

However, it has been romanticized by bureaucrats as a social media figure, as they look good behind the piles of official documents. As written says, some people consider it the source of motivation for youngsters, and others wonder that it is the source of distraction from real responsibility, of bureaucrats in the governance, which is hidden in this glamour. Hence, in order to inspire the youth, the authority must be as powerful as it has been imagined.

Q# 03

Answer The Question of Passage

Q1) The writer gives humorous examples of family meeting, heated debate, is all about food. Even though, from Lahore's food streets to Karachi's dhabeas food is the only substitute of cinemas and parks. writer gives an example how Pakistanis make food as an emotion, like; during rain, pakora is mandatory, Floods will stop the heatwave and how depression is connected with Haleem.

Q2) Cricket matches in Pakistan often become more about food than game itself, because of the love and the emotion for food. Pakistanis may find the game itself stressful, but the golgappas outside the stadium is real victory.

Q3) It can be concluded about author's attitude towards Pakistan's amusement. Parks that people often visit amusement park just for food not for rides, even if someone gets ride he will end up getting an MRI.

Q3) As the writer says, "Ironically, this obsession with entertainment has created a society where waistlines expand but horizons do not." It means that it is acceptable for Pakistanis to gain weight, but not expanding their vision or perspective. Pakistanis does not explore different things which can increase their vision. ~~to~~ when Pakistanis are asked about their hobbies they will end up talking up about food.

Q5) If Pakistan had developed entertainment industries like Disneyland or Broadway, it might people's reliance on food for recreational have been different. However people would have more and better options for entertainment which could divert them from food to real entertainment.

Q# 04

Sentence Correction

- iv) They left the car in the hotel where they had been staying.
- v) while running down the street, the bag fell from his hand.
- vi) The soldier had given a medal for his courage, while his colleagues cheered for him.
- viii) The lawyer had tried to cite the correct laws but his opponents accused him of making false cite.
- ii) The knowledge of computer science is very important now-a-days.

Q# 05 (A)

Punctuate The Passage

Let us explore the meaning of the quote, "do unto others as you would have them do unto you," said the teacher. The student replied, does it mean that if I want kindness I must first show kindness? The teacher nodded, and said, exactly it is about treating people the way you wish to be treated. The student smiled, and added so if I respect others I am more likely to be respected in return? yes, the teacher concluded, that is the golden rule of life.

(B) Rewrite the sentences with appropriate preposition

- 1) The Professor insisted on our completing the assignment before the deadline despite the university being closed on holidays.
- 2) She has been working on a solution that lies hidden beneath the surface of the problem.
- 3) Success often depends not merely on effort but also on the opportunities presented to us.
- 4) The lawyer argued over the proposal while standing in front of the very committee that had voted in favor of it last year.
- 5) The cat leapt carefully into the shelf above the fireplace and curled itself around the vase.

Q#07

Translation

The Helen Keller have mentioned a unique desire in her autobiography, if ^{I am} given a eyesight for three days, how I would spend my life. She says, on first day; I would see the faces of my loved ones so that I could know how the 'light of love' sparkles in the eye. On second day, she wishes to see the glimmers of nature; like sun rays, greenery of trees, colors of flowers and the blueness of sky. Moreover, on the third day, she wants to see the world's glory, tattereddazzle of the markets, the light of the theater and the performances, dramas just to experience the joy of human creation. According to her the gift of these three days is equivalent to change all the darkness of whole life into the light.