QNo#02

From Bureaucrats to Social Media Influencers

The civil service has been considered as the most prestigious occupation. Over time, it evolves and now in social media age it becomes social service more than professional service. Where well-paying jobs are limited and are dreams of many, Gov job offers stability, respect and financial security. So the fierce competition of CSS entails cost sacrificing hobbies, even mental well-being to prove one's self-worth. Now bureaucrats become social media figures instead of serving people. They spend more time on social media showing their luxury vehicles, branded items. These hybrid civil servants inspire youth despite of their poor performance because symbols matter more than substance, so youth is waiting for their turn.
