

Mock-3

English Preci's and Composition

Q no 4

Sentence Correction:

Answers:

- 3- We met at breakfast yesterday.
- 4- They left the car in the hotel where they had been staying.
- 5- The soldier was given a medal for his courage while his colleagues were cheering for him.
- 1- The government wants to keep the plan to itself.
- 2- Knowledge of Computer Science is very important nowadays.

Q5 . B (Prepositions)

- 2- She had been working on a solution that lies beneath the surface of the problem.
- 3- Success often depends not merely on effort but also on the opportunities presented to us.

5- His reputation rests on principles he never strayed from, even when under severe pressure.

4- The lawyer argued against the proposal while standing in front of the very committee that had voted in favor of it last year.

6. The old diary was discovered ~~there~~ ⁱⁿ the ruins, carefully placed between two broken bricks.

Q No 5 (A) Punctuation

"Let us explore the meaning of the quote, Do unto others, as you would have them do unto you," said the teacher. The student replied, "does it mean that if I want kindness, I must first show kindness?" The teacher nodded, and said, "exactly, it is about treating people the way, you wish to be treated." The student smiled and added, "So, if I respect others, I am more likely to be respected."

in return." "Yes", the teacher concluded, "That is the golden rule of life."

Q no 6 (Sentences)

4- To have a chip on one's

Shoulder: He drops me college every day because I do not know how to drive. It feels like I am a chip on his shoulder.

6- To raise a red flag: By teaching him the social stereotypes, she is raising a red flag. When he proposed her, she rejected her ^{proposal} abruptly. It seemed like she rose a red flag.

7- Sour grapes:

To meet and marry fawad khan are sour grapes for her.

3- To have other fish to fry: He lost his pocket money but he is not worried at all.

He has other fish to fry.
2- Donkey's years: He spent three years uselessly. Those were donkey's years for him.

Qno7- Translation

Hellen Keller in her autobiography expressed a unique wish that, 'if I get ^{only} three days to see then how shall I spend my life'. She says "first day I will see faces of my beloved ones, to know how light of love shines in the eyes." Second day she wants to see the views of nature like sunrays, greenery of trees, colours of flowers and blue sky. Third day she wants to see the radiance of the world like liveliness in markets, light of cinema and varieties of art, to observe the creative art of human. For her this gift of three days will be parallel to converting the darkness of whole life into light.

Q No 3 Reading Comprehension

Q No 1 Answer

The writer says that 'food is only entertainment in Pakistan and that is why it is linked with every situation in Pakistan. He gave some humorous examples like he says every weekend and national recreational plan here ends with a decision related to food. During rain they eat Pakoras, for depression eat haleem and during heatwaves eat falooda. During cricket matches they enjoy gol gappas outside the stadium. That is how Pakistani people end up enjoying food in every situation.

Q NO2 Answer

According to the text, cricket matches in Pakistan often become more about food than the game itself. It is so because the game itself may be stressful but people enjoy gol guppas (food) outside the stadium and snacks in stadium as the real victory.

Q NO3

From author's attitude toward Pakistan's amusement parks, it can be inferred that they exist in country but means of enjoyments in them are not good^{and} rather stressful. One ride in such parks can cause ^{back} pain and destroy entertainment.

Q NO4

By saying, "Ironically, this obsession with food entertainment has created a society where waistlines expand but horizons do not," the author means that because of obsession with food ^{people} will end up as fat ^{physically} but their horizon of thinking will never be broad. They will have no new and creative hobbies to think of as food is their only hobby and ultimate plan of entertainment for lifetime.

Q no 5

If Pakistan had developed entertainment industries like Disneyland or Broadway, people might have multiple options of recreation and enjoyment other than food. They might not relied so much on food as entertainment.

They must have explored various hobbies and would have broad horizons of thinking which might be beyond food and eating.

Q No 2 Precis

Precis:

Over time, the Civil Service in Pakistan has evolved as profession. Initially, it was a public service but now it's a mixture of necessity, obsession and social media influence. Many aspirants aspire it for stability, respect and influence. While others take this not as a career milestone but ^{as} a measure of their self-worth. They sacrifice everything for a seat, romanticised by many marketing institutes and social media. As in modern world, some bureaucrats are social media figures, focusing more on their looks rather than their performance. Resultantly, this job has become a fantasy and a mixture of both public service and a ^{romantic} lifestyle. As social media posts can inspire youth and can also distract public servants from their real progress on governance. So, in Pakistan this shows powerful image of authority.

and inspires youth.

Title: Role of Social media
in Civil Service of Pakistan

Total words: 440

Precis words: 135