activities. But in modern times, bureaucrats prefer to utilize more time on social media than to work on the pile of files gathered on table. They proud on serving nation in front of camera. This attitude differentiate them in two groups: public servant and the lifestyle influencer. One works to serve the public and other works to serve his lifestyle. On one hand, media motivates the youth about civil services but on other hand raise disputes and mistrust on governance. So, there is need to give more priority to maintain civil services authority symbol and choose right servants for the public services.

Comprehensions-

Q:1

The writer ~~give~~ some humorous example to show food linkage with different situations in Pakistan. He said that food is substitute for cinemas, parks to make good mood in every condition. He made beautiful connection between different food and entertainment like: Rain, pakoras; Heatwaves, falooda; Depression, haleem. The food connection between different situation is not an activity it depends on emotions. The writer also connected cricket match with snacks and stadium with gol gappas. The food in Pakistan is taken as a symbol of emotions and there's no need of therapy after taking food.

Q:2

According to this context, cricket matches in Pakistan often become more about food than the game itself. If we look at the cultural landscap of Pakistan, the only ultimate source of happiness is ~~to be~~ food. Pakistanis don't focus to explore other forms of entertaiment ~~except~~ food. Cricket matches in Pakistan become more for food than game because cricket matches are entertained ~~by~~ snacks and gol gappas outside the steradium is to get relief from game stress. Cricket game is a stressful, but gol gappas after the game is really as victory for the players.

Q: 3

The author's attitude toward Pakistan's amusement parks is really a dissatisfied and ~~radiculous~~. He said that the cinemas and concests are cancelled due to family values and other reasons. But amusement parks are existed in such a poor condition that one ride and your back pain will need MRI. He ridiculed the amusement parks for their poor infoastucture but you feel happy and safest when ^{will} you enjoy the cheaply food and entertaimment. He said that at end food is the safest and cheapest way to gather joy.

~~after amusement park.~~

Q:4:

The writer says, "Ironically, this obsession with food entertainment has created a society where waistlines expand but horizons do not" means that Pakistanis' hobbies are just food and entertainment. They are so obsessed with specific food or place that they changed themselves physically but not change the place of specific food. Their weekend plan, life plan, and entertainment plan is end at food rather than other activities and explore other kind of entertainment.

Q:5:

The cultural landscape of Pakistan is to reliance on food for universal source of happiness. Now, Pakistan don't have Disneyland and Broadway and do not have stress-free electricity but have biryani that solve everything. If ~~we~~ had developed entertainment industries like Disneyland and Broadway, then Pakistan's reliance on food for recreation would be same because there are different cultures in Pakistan. And these cultures don't replace their traditions or entertainment for other entertainment industries. Food will remains the universal and recreational way to the source of happiness and joy.
