(Q-5)

He is not asking "your opinion"

I don't agree that establishing Disneyland or Broadway will change people reliance on food. This is because these institutions of recreations do exist before. The problem lies in our attitudes, views and cultures. A strategic reshift is required there, where people are incentivise to see things beyond food, which is only possible if whole-of-a-societal approach is undertaken.

If Pakistan had developed entertainment options like Disneyland or Broadway, people might have enjoyed a variety of recreational activities beyond food.
