Reading Comprehension

Q No 1 Answer

The writer says that 'food is only entertainment in Pakistan and that is why it is linked with every situation in Pakistan. He gave some humorous examples like he says every weekend and national recreational plan here ends with a decision related to food. During rain they eat Pakoras, for depression eat haleem and during heatwaves eat falooda. During cricket matches they enjoy gol gappas outside the stadium. That is how Pakistani people end up enjoying food in every situation.

Q NO2 Answer

According to the text, cricket matches in Pakistan often become more about food than the game itself. It is so, because the game itself may be stressful but people enjoy gol guppas (food) outside the stadium and snacks in stadium as the real victory.

Q NO3

From author's attitude toward Pakistan's amusement parks, it can be inferred that they exist in country but means of enjoyments in them are not good and rather stressful. One ride in such parks can cause <sup>back</sup> pain and destroy entertainment.

Q NO4

By saying, "Ironically, this obsession with food entertainment has created a society where waistlines expand but horizons do not," the author means that because of obsession with food <sup>people</sup> will end up as fat <sup>physically</sup> but their horizon of thinking will never be broad. They will have no new and creative hobbies to think of as food is their only hobby and ultimate plan of entertainment for lifetime.

Q no 5

If Pakistan had developed entertainment industries like Disneyland or Broadway, people might have multiple options of recreation and enjoyment other than food. They might not relied so much on food as entertainment.

They must have explored various hobbies and would have broad horizons of thinking which might be beyond food and eating.
