A CSP or Social Media Influencer

From Public Service to Personal Branding

04/20

The civil services in Pakistan is primarily considered as secure career option to serve public and gain respect. Today, it is perceived as a full-packaged job, offering an opportunity to upgrade social and professional status. Some aspires to be the public servant for job security, stability and perks and privileges. While others see the CSS as a passion to boost self-esteem. The intense competition demands sacrifices from aspirants and is not as simple as portrayed by hundreds of success stories. These only benefits the CSS academies and YouTube channel. Secondly, the bureaucracy at Instagram has become so common. Now, the bureaucrats seem more like the social media influencers, than using it for ^{serving the people} self-projection. Critics argued that this serves as a motivation for youth while others see it as under-exaggeration of actual responsibility attached to the role. However, in Pakistan, the symbolic
