QUESTION #3

PART-A - PUNCTUATION

The historian paused, looked directly at the audience, and said, "The fall of ancient civilizations cannot be attributed to a single cause, however, we must consider several inter-connected factors including environmental degradation, economic instability, and political corruption. Moreover, the notion that 'these societies simply vanished' is absurd. They transformed, evolved, and in many cases, their descendants continue to thrive today. When examining primary sources from that era, particularly letters written by merchants, farmers, and government officials, we discover a far more complex narrative than traditional textbooks suggest. Dr Ahmed, one of ^{the} leading scholars in this field, has argued that we must read between the lines to understand what really happened. The evidence, he claims, speaks for itself."
