

Question no. 2

Corrections :

ii) The explanation is more clear than the previous one.

iv) Every candidate must submit his or her application before the deadline.

vi) The list of essential books was submitted to the committee.

viii) she was impressed by the unique solution presented during the debate.

x) The policy aims to reduce corruption, improve transparency and strengthen institutions.

Question no. 3(A)

The historian paused, looked directly at the audience and said, "the fall of ancient civilizations cannot be attributed to a single cause. However, we consider several interconnected factors including environmental degradation, economic instability and political corruption. Moreover, the notion that these societies simply vanished is absurd. They transformed, evolved and in many cases, their descendants continue to thrive. Today, when examining primary sources from that era, particularly, letters written by merchants, farmers and government officials, we discover a far more ~~more~~ complex narrative than traditional textbooks suggest. Dr. Ahmed, one of the leading scholars in this field, has argued that we must read between the lines to understand what really happened. The evidence, he claims, speaks for itself."

(B)

(i) The treaty was negotiated by the auspices of several international organizations.

(ii) The committee voiced concerns ~~for~~ about the implementation of the new regulatory framework.

(iii) Her conclusions rested in a subtle distinction between correlation and causation.

(iv) The argument is predicted by the assumption that —

(v) He was reprimanded of negligence in fulfilling his administrative duties.

←————→
(Q.1)

Title: Deep cultural Relation between Human and Horses

The relationship between human and pets has depicted the deeper knowledge about their co-existence in the world. In medieval Europe, the bond between human and horses was characterised by their role in shaping a complex social institutions. The breeding and training of horses required specialized knowledge. Mastermen could employ senses to read the temperament of horses. Through their subtle signs, mastermen could know which animal would remain feasible for particular activity. The farriers and blacksmiths were considered to be the most skilled who can diagnose problem through gait of horses and suggest suitable cure. ^{hence} These craftsmen, were ~~considered to be~~ essential figures ~~from~~ by everyone. Their workshops were the source of knowledge for young ones. The art of harnessing was also an enchanting skill. Yet different regions had developed their distinct philosophies regarding it.