

Fallacy in British Court

The example of fallacy is seen in the British court of law. The client of one side says to his lawyer "if you can't counter the arguments of opposite law, the Jurist will order against us".

Lincoln a young lawyer and it was his first case. Therefore, he could not satisfy the Jurist and on the other hand, the opponent lawyer was experienced ^{person} and has legal arguments. So, he defeated the Lincoln in jury but Judge seen a fault in experienced law shirt. Judge ordered in the favor of Mr. Lincoln. However, Lincoln won this case in the negligence of the opponent lawyer. Similarly, The President Eisenhower declared unfit and could not take government. Franklin Roosevelt discharged in government due to wrong policy.
