

Precis & Composition (Mock)

(Question 4) Correct any five of the following sentences :

(b) I am one of those persons who cannot describe what I feel.

Ans) I am one of those people who cannot describe what they feel.

(d) The reading of poetry gives greater delight than reading prose.

Ans) Reading ~~of~~ poetry gives greater than reading prose.

(e) Sir Huzalka left for Mianwali on Friday last, arriving there on Monday.

Sir Huzalka left for Mianwali ~~on~~ last Friday, and ~~will~~ arrive there on Monday.

(g) I never have and never will abuse anyone.

I never have nor will abuse anyone.

(h) You need not to rebuke him.

You need not rebuke him.

Question 5)

a) For

b) for

c) in

d) to

v) along

vi) of

vii) over viii) within.

B) Two little frogs were playing about at the edge of a pool; when an ox came down to the water to drink, and by accident trod on one of them, and crushed the life out of him. When the old frog missed him she asked he was. "He is dead mother," said the little frog. "An enormous big creature, with four legs, came to our pool this morning, and trampled him down." "Enormous was he?" "Enormous," he was big as this," said the frog, pulling herself out to look as big as possible. "Oh yes, much bigger," was the answer. The frog pulled herself out. "Was he as big as this?" said she. "Oh yes, yes, much bigger," said the little frog, and yet again she pulled, and pulled herself out, till she was almost as round as a ball, as big as big as she began, but then she burst.

Question 6)

(1) "This is your house, isn't it?" asked Majid.

~~Majid asked if that was my house Majid asked me if that was~~
~~(1) "Where"~~ Majid asked me if that was my house

(2) "Where do you want to be dropped?" said the taxi driver.

The taxi driver asked me where I wanted to be dropped.
4) "Don't blame him for the accident" the boy's mother said.

The boy's mother told them to not blame him for the accident.

5) He said, "I knocked on the door but she did not answer".

He said that he had knocked on the door but

She ~~did not~~ answer had not answered.

(3) "Call the first witness," said the judge.

The judge ordered ~~the~~ <sup>it</sup> for the first witness to be called.

Question 3)

2) According to the text, who was assigned to defend the village of Kamelfor, and with how many soldiers?

According to the text Captain Ansan Malik who was serving in the Pakistan army during the 1971 war with India was assigned to defend the village of Kamalpur which was situated on the East Pakistan border with India. He was accompanied by 140 soldiers from the 31 Baluch regiment. He was later awarded Sitara-e-Jumad for his bravery.

(22) How many years did the two pilots rewrite, and what was the outcome of their meeting?

According to the text, the pilots, the American pilot Charles Brown's (whose B-17 was shot down <sup>by</sup> ~~the~~ <sup>by</sup> ~~the~~ German Ace pilot after Bombing Bremen, Germany in 1943) and <sup>the</sup> German Ace pilot Franz Stigler met after forty years after the 1943 incident and (in which Stigler had saved Brown's life) and their friendship lasted until their deaths.

(3) What does the story suggest about the meaning of true bravery beyond fighting?

The story suggests that true bravery is not limited to fighting or defeating the enemy. Instead it included the courage to act with humanity. The soldiers showed mercy to their captives, protected the helpless, and upheld ethical principles demonstrating a higher form of bravery. Their actions prove that real courage lies in choosing what is right over what is easy.

(4)

Ans.) Acts of kindness and courage can transform former enemies into lasting friends. When one soldier risks his life to show mercy instead of cruelty, it creates a deep sense of gratitude. As shown in the stories, such acts can lead to emotional reunions, like long hugs and mutual admiration. In this way, kindness has the power to heal wounds of war and build relationships which do not seem possible.

(5)

If Stigler had followed the common practice of shutting down the enemy, Charles Brown would have died, and their inspiring story which shows the power of showing mercy to one's enemies and their lifelong friendship which followed the incident in 1943 would not have existed.

Question 2)

Title : The ad hominem fallacy

The ad hominem fallacy occurs when an argument is made by targeting the person making it rather than the argument itself. A classic British courtroom example advises discrediting the plaintiff's lawyer if the argument cannot be targeted. Abraham Lincoln once used this tactic in a jury case by mocking his opponent's backward buttoned shirt. Historically, ad hominem has been used widely, ranging from the Suphoists to political campaigns. Detractors of Franklin Roosevelt attacked his policies by attacking his physical disability. ~~an~~

(Question 7)

One wishes that he could play that games that he used to play like; treasure hunt, hopu tapu, gulli danda, and Anokh pacheli etc.

• If one could turn back time then one could relive those moments of happiness and carefree attitude once again. One would play with one's friends in the alley and would forget about the tiny squabbles while playing. Now, those days of yore are just a memory, and the heart aches for a ~~stronger~~ time when life was simple, happy and carefree.