(A) Punctuate the . . . Passage:

The historian paused, looked directly at the audience, and said, "The fall of ancient civilizations cannot be attributed to a single cause. However, we must consider several interconnected factors including environmental degradation, economic instability, and political corruption. Moreover, the notion that these societies simply vanished is absurd; they transformed, evolved, and—in many cases—their descendants continue to thrive today.) When examining primary sources from that era—particularly letters written by merchants, farmers, and government officials—we discover a far more complex narrative than traditional textbooks suggest.
