

TOOBA GUL
ENGLISH ESSAY Test-1
31st - 12-2025

Q. Make outline for any one of following essay topics. Outline + Thesis statement and Introductory paragraph.

4- Women in Power Structures of Pakistan: Presence, Impact, Limit

OUTLINE

1- Introduction

Thesis statement: In modern era, women thrive in the power structures of Pakistan. They create significant impact in policy making through their active participation. However, social and cultural barriers can impede their advancement.

2- Women representation in power structures of Pakistan

3- Manifestation of women's presence in the power structures of Pakistan

a- Women's hold leadership position as parliamentarians

b- Active participation in the formal workforce of Pakistan

c- Women activists / uplift human rights standards

d- serve as in bureaucracy as leaders

e- Women educators shape society's mindset

4- What impact women create due to their presence in the ~~workforce~~ power structures of Pakistan

- a- Increase women participation/representation in the parliament
- b- Promote women-led laws and policies
- c- Economic participation of women curbs glass ceiling in professional life
- d- Women as leaders quest social stereotypes of male dominance
- e- Raise awareness and literacy level of women

5- What limitations women face to maximize their potential in power structure of Pakistan

- a- limited access to information resources
- b- Face glass ceiling in professional advancement
- c- Societal stereotypes limit women's decision making
- d- Threats and harassment restrict women's ~~ability~~ mobility
- e- Social pressure to prioritize family over careers

6- Conclusion

Essay:

"When girls can be educated, their countries become stronger and more prosperous" (Michelle Obama, Let Girls Learn initiative). This quote appropriately highlights the significance of women in the power structures of a country. Educated women turn out to be efficient leaders. They hold seats of power as parliamentarians, bureaucrats, and human rights activists. Moreover, women in workforce and educational institutes contribute to the power structure of Pakistan via shaping mindset and ~~socio~~ uplifting economy. Women, through active participation, create an impact in the power structures of Pakistan. They encourage women representation in parliament, accelerate women-led policies and curb social stereotypes. Besides, they foster women's economic participation, curb glass ceiling in professional life and increase awareness among women. Nevertheless, several barriers limit women to utilize their full potential in power structures of Pakistan. These include patriarchal stereotypes and social pressures, ^{that} limiting women's decision making. Over and above, no access to information restrains women to manifest their ~~full~~ capabilities. Thus, in moderna era, women thrive in power structures of Pakistan. They create significant impact in policy making through their active participation. However, social and cultural barriers can impede their advancement.

Rough work

Women in Power structure of Pakistan:

Presence, Impact, and Limitations

Topic Segmentation

- MF = Women in power structure
- SC = Presence, Impact & Limitations
- BG = Pakistan

G.P.E.S.T

Basic Writing & Mind-mapping

① 1- Introduction

These statements: In modern era, women have in the power structure of Pakistan. They create significant impact in policy making through their leadership roles. However, social and professional barriers can impede their progress.

Representation

2- Role of women in Power structures of Pakistan

3- Manifestation of women in the power structure of Pakistan

a- Women holds leadership positions as parliamentarians

b- Participation in the formal workforce of Pak

c- Women serve as women's rights activists

d- Actively participate in entrepreneurship

e- Lack decision making power

f- Take part in bureaucracy as leaders

4- Impact How women create an impact due to their presence in Power structure of Pak.

Pol:

- a- Enforce gender equality by promoting women's empowerment policies & laws
- b- Raise awareness through education for girls
- c- Women as leaders overt social stereotype of male dominance
- d- Economic participation of women needs transparency in professional life
- e- Increase women's representation in Parliament

5- What limitations women face to maximize their potential power class of Pak

- a- Threats & harassment restrict women's mobility
- b- Limited access to info resources
- c- Glass ceiling impedes professional advancement
- d- Societal stereotype about limit women's
- e- Social pressure to prioritize family or career decision
- 6- Conclusion