

Date: 31-12-25

Day: Wednesday

NAME :- SHAHZAIB KHAN NAYYER

BATCH :- 003

LMS ID :- 43600

SUBJECT :- ENGLISH ESSAY

TEST-1

B

3 Causes and consequences of delayed justice

OUTLINE

1. Introduction

Delayed justice is prevailing issue of the world. It is due large number of pending cases and loopholes in judiciary system. This has given confidence to evil persons of society.

2. Causes of delayed justice.

2.1. Large number of pending cases.

(Case study: Pakistan had over 2.2 million cases pending nationwide)

2.2. Unprofessional handling and presenting of evidences by police.

2.3. Privileges given to elite class only.

(Supreme court of Pakistan opened at 12 am for Ex-prime minister).

2.4. Appeals can stretch cases over decades.

2.5. Malpractices of judges and security agencies.

(In March 2024, six judges of Islamabad High court wrote letter related to interference and pressure of state agencies)

2.6. Lack of coordinate between judiciary and executive.

2.7. Loopholes in judiciary system.

Day: _____

Date: _____

Day: _____

Justice.

3. Consequences of delayed justice.

bending

3.1. Increase in crimes in society.

el over
ing nationwide)

(case study: the conviction rate of rape cases in Pakistan is less than 2%.)

and presenting

3.2. Give confidence to criminals in society.

elite

3.3. The innocent person bears stress of judicial procedures.

Pakistan opened (minister).

3.4. Erosion of trust in judiciary and law enforcement.

cases

(case study: convicted person is president of USA currently)

and

3.5. Delay in legal disputes affects society and the economy.

of Islamabad

3.6. Weakens the rule of law.

related to state agencies)

(Pakistan ranked 130th out of 143 countries in 2025 world justice project)

between

3.7. Violation of human rights prevails.

system

4. Pathways to Overcome delayed justice.

4.1. Reforms in judicial system

4.2. Accountability of judges and security agencies.

4.3. Time period defined for every case to give decision.

5. Conclusion.

"Justice delayed is justice denied."

(William E. Gladstone)

With the passage of time, justice system in world is deteriorating day by day. Delayed justice is a prevailing issue in the world. It is due to large number of pending cases and loopholes in judiciary system. This has given confidence to evil persons of society. The causes of delayed justice system are malpractices of judges and security agencies, loopholes in judiciary system and privillages given to elite class. The consequences of delayed justice are increase in crimes in society, erosion of trust in judiciary and violation of human rights prevail. This issue can be handled by doing reforms in judiciary system. and accountability of judges. In nutshell, delayed justice is common issue of world which can be mitigated by doing reforms.

Date: _____

Day: _____

