

Mock Exam

PART - II

The Ad Hominem Fallacy: Attacking the Man, Not the Argument

The Judicious Use of Ad-hominem

fallacy involves attacking the person instead of addressing their argument.

In the British court of law, Ad-rem and Ad-hominem can be used ~~interchangeably~~ according to one's ease. It can be seen via the story of (Abraham) Lincoln as a young lawyer, who during one of his first jury cases was clever enough to judiciously use Ad-hominem against his experienced opponent. He claimed Focus on clarity, logical flow and Avoid disjointed sentences.

Write clear and short sentences

Avoid complicated sentences

Follow the order of precis's original passage

Pretended knowledge of law when he doesn't even know how to properly wear a shirt and through this argument he won the case. The history of Ad-hominem goes back to the 1956

nominations of president Eisenhower and president Franklin Roosevelt in 1944 whose opponents used a cruel type of Ad-hominem

Precis should be one 3rd of original passage

Your passage reflect the original idea

Don't take direct sentences from the passage

It is not the narration do precis

Title should be self-defining and self-explanatory to the passage

Always write in third person

- Total word count = 117 words
- Title = "The Judicious Use of Ad-hominem"
"The Importance of Ad-hominem"

Length of Answers is enough

Avoid Irrelevant Ideas and Detail

Avoid Repetition of ideas

Don't take direct sentences from the passage

QUESTION NO:-3

09/20

Part (i) :-

During 1971 war against India, Captain Ahsan Malik was assigned to defend the village of Kamalpur on the East Pakistani border with 140 soldiers from 31 Baluch. They displayed commendable valor during the war that even his counterpart couldn't resist and requested Pakistan to award Captain Ahsan Malik (with award) so he was honored with Sitara-e-Jurat owing to his commendable bravery. He might not have received this prestigious recognition if he hadn't shown this bravery.

part (ii) :-

Don't take direct sentences from original passage on December 20, 1943, American pilot Charles Brown's B-17 was severely damaged by German fighter Ace pilot Franz Stigler. Stigler saw the helpless plane and instead of shooting the enemy, he helped them escape through German defenses. Both the pilots re-united after forty years, and their friendship lasted till death because Stigler didn't follow the common practice of shooting down the enemy; thus he ~~wrote~~ ^{gave} an inspiring story and laid foundation of a lasting friendship.

Part (iii):-

The story suggests that the true bravery beyond fighting means that a true warrior ~~maintains~~ ^{the} humanity and ethics even on the battlefield. Their conscience is of utmost importance to save innocent lives; the morality alongside courage is of bottom line to not only inspire generations but also to preserve the dignity of war.

Part (iv):-

The acts of kindness and courage can foster an unbreakable bond and lasting friendship between former enemies. Thus, it's important to not only portray bravery but conscience and morality as well to preserve the dignity. Such stories of lasting friendships among enemies inspire generations and helps them to spread kindness.

Part (v):-

If Franz Stigler had shot down Charles Brown's B-17; by following the practice of shooting down the enemy, Charles Brown would've died and their inspiring story would never have existed.

QUESTION No:- 4

(i) Hundred of Students gathered to attend the conference by Hassan Ali Gondal.

Hundreds of Students gathered to attend the conference by Hassan Ali Gondal.

(iii) I am one of those persons who can't describe what I feel.

I am one of those ~~people~~ who can't describe how I feel.

(iii) of the novel and poetry the last is more important.

of the novel and poetry, the latter is more important.

(iv) I never have and never will abuse anyone.

I never have, and I ^{will never} never will abuse anyone.

(v) You need not to rebuke him.

You need not rebuke him.

QUESTION NO:- 5

3/5

(i) The doctor gave me a prescription for my cough.

(ii) Throw this pen into the dustbin.

(iii) He went ~~into~~ the dessert.

(iv) The bird flew over my head.

(v) In the examination you've to answer all the questions ~~in~~ ~~in~~ in your handwriting.

(B)

Two little frogs were playing about at the edge of a pool, when an ox came down to drink the water, and by accident trampled on one of them and crushed the life out of him. When the old frog missed him,

She asked his brother, "Where is he?" He is dead, mother," said the little frog. An enormous big creature with four legs came to our pool this morning, and trampled him in the mud. He was as big as this," don't modify just punctuate said the frog, puffing herself out to look as big as possible. "Oh, ~~yes~~ ^{yes!} Much bigger!" was the answer. The frog puffed herself out still more. "Was he as big as this?" said

The mother. She said, "Oh, yes, yes, mother, much bigger!" and yet again, she puffed and puffed herself out till ^{she was} ~~she was~~ ^{ball,} ~~ball,~~ ^A as big as ...

she began, but then she burst! -

QUESTION NO-6

0/0

(i) "This is your house, isn't it?" asked Majid.
Majid asked if that was my house.

(ii) "Where do you want to be dropped?"
said the taxi driver.

The taxi driver asked where I wanted to be dropped.

(iii) "Call the first witness", said the judge.
The judge ordered to call the first witness.

(iv) "Don't blame him for the accident" the boy's mother said.

The boy's mother told me not to blame
him for the accident.

(v) He said, "I knocked on the door but
she didn't answer".

He said that he had knocked on the door but she hadn't answered.

Attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner
Focus on grammar please
Do not attempt word by word

Date: _____

QUESTION NO:- 7

I wish we could once again play those games like: guli-danda, treasure hunt, bapu-tapu and hide-and seek. If those good old days returned, we would relive those joys and carefree moments. We would run through run through the streets with our friends, laughing and forgetting the little quarrels happened while playing.

Those days have now become a memory, and the heart often feels the absence of those moments when life was simple, pleasant, and carefree.