QUESTION: 01

TRANSLATION

Life does not always follow the straight path. In childhood, when we were careless, every moment seemed like happiness and play. But, as soon as we step into youth, the burden of reality made us realize about our responsibilities.

Dreams of past which we cherished, now sometimes become reality and sometimes, distant stars.

The people who get lesson from past mistakes, they lay a strong foundation for future. Respect the value the present because, the moment which we have now, that can change our fate. Remember, Time does not wait for anybody, but the one who values the time, time opens the door of success for him.
