

Q No 1:

Life has always twists and turns. We were very carefree in childhood, every moment was filled with happiness and playful activities. As soon as we stepped into adulthood the reality of responsibilities has burdened us. The incomplete dreams of past sometimes turns into reality and sometimes they are far away. Learning from past mistakes and experiences build a strong foundation for the future. Learn to value your present as these moments can transform our fate. It is to remember that time waits for none, but whoever value their time it can open the doors of success to them.

Q No 2:

3- He neither went to party, nor did he ^{wanted to} stay at home.

6- The list of the items was on the table.

7. The solution to the problem was simpler than expected.

8- She was singing while he was writing a letter.

4. If I study hard, I will pass the exam.

Q NO 3:

2- The book was written by a famous author in the 18th century.

3- He walked across the bridge to reach the park on the other side.

4- The child hid the candy under the bed, hoping no one would find it.

5- He succeeded in his mission despite all odds.

6- The discussion turned around the impact of climate change on wildlife.

7. We need to arrive at the station on later at 9:00am

8- The shop is located around the ~~corner~~ corner of Main Street and Park Avenue.

9. I agree with your point of view to some extent.

10. She took responsibility of organizing the event.

11. She is of passionate of helping others achieve their goals.

Q No 4:

Idioms.

Sentences.

Hit the nail on the head.

She hit the nail on the head with painting a portrait; it looked really beautiful.

Spill the beans.

Ayesha spilled the beans of her former friend to another friend without realizing both are relatives.

Beat around the bush.

She was beating around the bush without discussing the real problem.

The best of both worlds.

He was best of both the worlds, as she was a junior but also enjoying and ~~the~~ hanging out with seniors as well.

Bite the Bullet

The task has to be taken as per a decision and directed you have got to bite the bullet.