

Subjective:

English Precis and Composition:

Q# 2: P
Precis Writing:

The Art of Politics:

The verbal command of politicians is fascinating. Full of intrigues and vague commitments, this linguistic art is apparent during accountability, which perplexes the inquisitor himself. The art of making unreal covenants and then evading them is also commendable. The emotional art of crocodile tears, leveraging soft image via photography and changing statements every now and then proves that politics is about "good acting" and not servitude.

4: Sentence Corrections:

- (1) I will complete this project by tomorrow.
- 2) If I knew the answers, I would pass the examination.
- 3) All kind of stationaries all sold here.
- 4) There has always been a fight between the Devil and the Divine.
- 5) Little a elegance is left in this arrogant youth.

5: (A) Punctuation:

A boy was gathering berries from a hedge when his hand was stung by a nettle. Smarting with the pain, he ran to tell his mother and said to her between his sobs, "I only touched it ever so lightly mother". "That is why you got stung my son", said she, "If you have grasped it firmly, it would not have hurt you in the least".

(B) Prepositions:

(i) She came for the wealth on her father's death.

(ii) I am broke with him because he is a selfish friend.

(iii) Every candidate tries to pull in each voter.

(iv) The poor dine off their honest wages.

(v) You have no right to jeer at the beggar.

Q#6: "Sentence Making:"

(A)

(i) Keep fingers crossed:

The audience kept their fingers crossed during the final over of the match.

(ii) Bad hair day: It was a bad hair day, so I tied my hair.

(B) (i) Monitor, Mentor

(1) Monitor: The team monitored the progress of the plan.

(2) Mentor: My Essay mentor ~~is~~ is an expert of the subject.

(ii) Complacent, Complainant:

(1) Complacent: America is complacent ~~is~~ is supporting crimes against humanity.

(2) Complainant:

The Complainant waited outside the court.

(iii) Beneficent, beneficial:

(1) Beneficial: Fruits and vegetables are beneficial for a healthy life.

(2) Beneficent: Fruits should be eaten raw, cooking them is not beneficent.

Q#7: Translation:-

In competitive exams there are students who think they can achieve success through short-cuts, and without the needed hardwork. They are the people who expect Divine help even though they have prepared for only two days. In reality, there is neither a magic wand, nor a short-cut that can guarantee success.

For exceptional results, one should prepare exceptionally. So the next time, while chitling with a cup of tea and wondering whether to study or not, remember success doesn't come from non-seriousness, but hardwork.
(non-serious attitude)
