Q2

Precis:-

Title:- Political leaders vs Public Service:

Politicians came into power, for the name of better governance, and the intellectual community and people, no one have the courage to question their motive.

While they are in power, they ignore all the promises which were made at the time of election. But when the elections over, the promise become an indivisible shadow. Politicians will never fail to entertain the masses, while they have a guilt of their scandals.

The political leadership seems to be less motivated to serve the public and more inline about perfecting the performance.
