

Brain drain and family Strain: The impact of immigration on Pakistani families.

I Introduction:

- A. Increasing trends of immigration has been experienced in past decades.
- B. The immigration adversely effect the indigenous families living in Pakistan.
- C. The adverse impacts are manifested in various aspects. For instance, social, economic and psychological

II The Repercussions of immigration on Pakistani families

1. Reduced jobs for Pakistani families
2. Security threats from immigrants
3. Reduced education enrollment of Pakistani families
4. Food shortages
5. Increased poverty among indigenous families
6. Increased health problems

7. Reduced access to clean water
8. Mental strain experienced by indigenous families

III Current trend in respective area:

1. Increasing afghans migration to Pakistan

IV Way forward: tackling the issue

1. Raising concerns on international level.
2. Seeking aid from international organisations like united nations

V Conclusion