

English Precis And Composition

Q.4 Correct any five of the following sentences

(iv) Looking through the view-finder, some strangers were seen standing at the door.

Looking through the view-finder, some strangers seen standing at the door.

(v) All kinds of stationaries is sold here.

All kind of stationary is available here.

(vi) A little elegance is left in those arrogant youth.

A little elegance left in those arrogant youth.

(vii) The mother was herself searching in her younger daughter.

The mother was searching her younger daughter by herself.

(i) I will be completing this project by this time tomorrow.

I will complete this project by this time tomorrow.

Q. 2A Punctuate the following passage.

A boy was gathering berries from a hedge when his hand was stung by a nettle, smarting with the pain. He ran to tell his mother and said to her, "between his sobs I only touched it ever so lightly mother," "that is why you got stung my son," said she, "if you have grasped it firmly, it would not have hurt you in the least."

B. Re-write the following sentences after filling in the blanks with appropriate preposition.

(iii) He has got over all his hardship

DATE: ___/___/___

in his life.

(iv) Every candidate tries to pull to each voter.

(v) The poor live in their honest wages.

(vi) They did not swear of God.

(viii) He is leaning from the wall as he is not feeling well.

Q7. Translate the following urdu into English, keeping in view the idiomatic / figurative expressions

Some students, who are preparing for competitive exams, think that they can become topper just by staring book cover or putting notes under their pillow at night. These are the people who ~~even~~ search some reference even in prayers after two days preparation. But in reality, no one have "magic stick" or there is no "short cut" of success. If you want incredible success you have to work incredibly hard. Remember! Success does not come from joke, it comes from hardwork.

Q. 3. Read the following passages carefully and answer the questions that follow

2. How far are electric vehicles (EVs) environmentally friendly?

Electric vehicles often lauded for their environmentally friendly image but their production also results in significant pollution. The manufacturing process requires extensive mining of materials which causes habitat destruction, soil contamination and high water usage which stressed environment.

3. What challenges is associated with the disposal of renewable energy systems after their lifespan ends.

Question of disposal of renewable energy systems after their lifespan ends is critical as recycling these components is neither straightforward, not widely practiced, often resulting in the accumulation of toxic waste. Without a proper management of this waste material, promise of renewable energy will not be fulfill.

4. Why does the article suggest that renewable energy is not entirely pollution-free during its operational phase?

Renewable energy system is not entirely pollution-free during its operational phase because of intermittent nature of solar and wind power which necessitates back up from fossil fuel plants or reliance on battery storage, the latter of which poses its own environmental challenges. Besides this, batteries rely heavily on lithium and cobalt which both are notorious for environmental degradation.

5. How does the article propose addressing the limitations of renewable energy?

Article propose the limimitations of renewable energy system as ~~an~~ complex, imperfect solution that requires careful management and realistic expectations. Only by acknowledging its limitations can be hoped to harness its potential responsibly.

1. What can be inferred about the environmental impact of renewable energy production compared to traditional fossil fuels?

Q2 Make a précis of the following passage and suggest a suitable title.

Theatrics Of Modern Politicians

Politicians, often hailed for their integrity, excel in linguistic evasions and shrewd strategies, turning governance into a spectacle. Their mastery of complex rhetoric cloaks their avoidance of accountability, while promises are lavishly made before elections.

DATE: ___/___/___

but rarely fulfilled. They showcase theatrical flair, manipulating public sentiment through staged emotions and photo-ops. Adaptable like chameleons, they prioritize self-preservation, seamlessly navigating scandals and shifting ideologies. Ultimately their focus lies on performance over genuine public service, leaving leadership as a mere act.

Total words = 297

Precis words = 78