

English Essay Test - 2

Malnutrition in Pakistan: Causes and Consequences

1) Introduction:

i- Ranking 102/125 in Global Hunger Index

ii- Thesis Statement:

Malnutrition is growing concern for Pakistan in contemporary time period, if not addressed in time it can be one of the major disasters that Pakistan may face in near future.

2) Causes of malnutrition in Pakistan:

i- Rapid growth of population creating issues for Pakistan in many fields and malnutrition is one of them.

a) 5th most populated country in the world ii- Poverty is the fundamental problem which generates problems like malnutrition

a) 1/4th of the population is below poverty rate

iii- Inflation in developing state affects more to the population as compared to the developed states.

a) A record inflation rate of 29% is noted in Pakistan (2023)