

Qno1

Precis & Composition

Title: "Conceptualizing the Sportsmanship"

Precis:

Sportsman is described as a characteristics of an individual that is expected from him during sports. Generally, it refers to virtue or it has been associated with interpersonal concepts, self control and respect. Sportsmanship has four elements; good form, the will to win, equity, and fairness. All these should be present in a sportsman, if a person lacks any of these, it will result in the defeat of core idea of sportsmanship. Today's sporting culture, particularly elite sport, they are based on competition and Winning. Sportsman at the elite class level makes the standards on sportsmanship and they are considered role models in society. There are two types of competitors in sports; Sore losers, one who blame others for his loss, and a bad winner, one who acts in a shallow fashion. Furthermore, if a sportsman does not show respect to other teammates, cheat, or break rules, he is considered as bad sportsman.

(Word Counts 154)

Q3 Antonyms

- ① Transgression : Enliven
- ② Enevate : Sincere
- ③ Flout : Sworn
- ④ Coagulate : Harden
- ⑤ Dauri : Depressing
- ⑥ Bolster : Weaken
- ⑦ Amalgamate : Decrease

Propitious : Optimistic

Prodigious : Small

Intimidate : Augment

Qno: 2

-(Comprehension)-

-(Qno: 1)-

Sensationalism in media contribution to public confusion about facts:-
In the age of rapid information dissemination, sensationalism can lead to the spread of false or misleading information. Social media platforms, in particular, can amplify misinformation, creating an environment where rumours, conspiracy theories, and unverified claims thrive. As a result, the public may find it challenging to distinguish between credible information and falsehoods, contributing to confusion.

---(Qno:2)---

Impact of media on people's ability to understand complex topics

Media's role in framing issues can shape public perception in a way that oversimplifies complex matters or perpetuates binary narratives. Nuanced and multifaceted issues may be reduced to polarized view points, leading to a lack of understanding and an oversimplified worldview. This oversimplification can contribute to confusion, as individuals then struggle to comprehend it when it is presented in a black-and-white manner.

---(Qno:3)---

Effect of Exposure of information in the 24/7 news cycle on critical thinking-

The constant bombardment of information in the 24/7 news cycle contributes to information overload, making it difficult for individuals to process and make sense of the vast amount of content. This overload can lead to cognitive fatigue, reducing people's ability to critically analyze information and contributing to a sense of confusion.

Influence of media

Influence of ~~media~~ conflicting cultural messages from media on social expectations:-

Media is playing a crucial role in shaping cultural narratives and social norms which can create conflicting messages. Advertisements, entertainment and news content may convey contradictory values, leading to confusion about societal expectations and individual identity. The portrayal of unrealistic standards, conflicting role models, and divergent cultural messages can contribute to a sense of disorientation