SUBJECTIVE PART — PART-II

- Q. 1. Critically examine the differences between Gender Studies and women Studies. Shed light on sex vs gender debate as well.
- Q. 2. Discuss the evolution of feminist thoughts in Pakistan by highlighting the development of Gender Studies as an academic discipline in the country.
- Q. 3. In recent years, digital technology has transformed how we live and work, providing numerous economic and social development opportunities. However, the unequal distribution of these opportunities between genders, especially in developing countries like Pakistan, has raised concerns about the digital divide. Women in Pakistan, in particular, face significant challenges in accessing and utilizing digital technology, which limits their access to education, employment, and economic empowerment. What measures would you suggest to narrow the gender-based digital divide in Pakistan to enable Pakistani women to benefit and empower themselves through technological revolutions and play their role for economic growth and development of Pakistan?
- Q. 4. Discuss different types of feminism and their contribution in elevating the socio-economic status of women globally.
- Q. 5. "Feminism in the 21st century needs to address the concerns of all genders and sexual orientations." Discuss this statement with reference to contemporary feminist movements.
- Q. 6. Elaborate different forms of gender based violence. Also, evaluate the effectiveness of existing laws and policies in addressing gender-based violence in Pakistan.
- Q. 7. What are the obstacles in the way of women political participation in Pakistan? Does the introduction of quota system would make any difference in this regard? Substantiate your answer with examples.
- Q. 8. Write short notes on the following (10 marks each)
 - a- Globalization and Women
 - b- Autonomy vs Integration debate
