05:8 PUNCTUATION

Early in the morning, as the sun rose, I decided to go for a walk. The air was fresh, and the birds were chirping loudly. Suddenly, I saw a small dog running across the park. It seemed lost and frightened. Unsure of what to do, I approached slowly to avoid scaring it further. Thankfully, a man came running and said, "Oh, there you are, buddy! I've been looking for you everywhere."

Q2. Precis

Title:- The Decline of Oratory and Churchill's Legacy

Precis:-

The future of oratory is unpredictable. In the past, orators considered themselves privileged and worked hard to master this art. However, in modern times, the art of oratory is declining. This decline is mainly due to the three reasons: the rise in the usage of written communication, the evolution in methods used for oral communication, and the increasingly busy lifestyles. Sir Winston S. Churchill one of the greatest orators of all time, had mastery over shaping ideas and using best language and tone for presenting them. He utilized this skill for over 30 years for his speeches and in diplomatic matters. His speeches are considered as the best ever delivered by any human and are historical guide for the world. His mastery in the art of oratory is also a source of his remembrance and admiration.
