

Question 1A

"My quaint Ariel," said Prospero to the little sprite when he made him free, "I shall miss you, yet you shall have your freedom."

"Thank you my dear master," said Ariel, "but, give me leave to attend your ship with prosperous gales before you bid farewell to the assistance of your faithful spirit."

Question 1B

John asked Bob, ~~about~~ if he had heard the news about Jake - Bob replied he did not hear anything and asked what had happened. Then John informed him about the termination of Jake, to which Bob exclaimed in shock and showed his disbelief by stating that he thought Jake was doing well in his role.

So, John explained to him that apparently there were some budget cuts and because of that they had to terminate few people.

Further Bob said that it is terrible, as Jake has been with the company for years - And further asked how he is handling the news - John replied that he is not doing well which is understandable. The news made him shocked and frustrated, while John did try to reach out to offer support but he is still processing things - Bob sighed and wished that although it is hard, he hopes that Jake will bounce back soon - And it is hard for him when someone you have worked with for so long has to go through this. John agreed and said it is a tough a reality, and Jake will be missed and he hopes he will be fine soon -
