Islamophobia: Major Threat OF

Muslim World

The concept of islamophobia has become an ideology in the western countries because of various <sup>factors</sup> countries. Hatred toward muslims, their appearances, holy-places, major practices and holy personalities have developed. It may be due to excessive familiarity of some oppressive and extremist organizations. Other factors are media's misrepresentation of Islam, secular leaders of west, authoritarianism and propaganda to undermine image of islam on the global level. It can be encountered through comprehensive strategies, fostering unity among muslims and cooperation of international organizations. This answer will demonstrate some proposals to encounter islamophobia.

① Education and awareness

The great role of education and awareness in dealing with any threat and misconception can't be avoided. Most the hatred against Islam is due to lack of proper knowledge regarding it among the masses. Awareness campaigns should be carried out to spread right education about Islam. This ~~will~~ will help significantly in controlling Islamophobia.

② Address the misinterpretation in media

Media has significant role in spreading knowledge and information in today's world. The misconception should be addressed through delivering message of Islam with the help of social media. Muslims should increase their representation in media and advocate for balanced coverage of Muslim communities.

③ Strengthen the legal protection against discrimination

Muslims should enact strict laws with cooperation of international community to persecute those who spread hatred against muslims. Stringent policies against extremist ideologies and anti-islamic practices will help encounter islamophobia.

iv) Promote inter-faith dialogue and understanding

Communities from different religions must integrate. Muslims should invite other religions towards mosques, meetings and greetings where people can discuss their shared values. The increased integration would reduce hatred and fear against islam and build a peaceful society.

v) Foster positive muslim representation

Muslim leaders should work together to combatte the stereotypes of islamophobia. Religious leaders should make efforts to work internationally and spread peaceful message of islam in west and European countries.

vi) Highlight Islam's universal values

The religious scholars should practice and promote peace, harmony, honesty and tolerance. They should encourage peaceful co-existence of different religions and cultures. Historical achievement of Islamic world in different fields such as arts, science, technology and other sectors should be spread so that hatred against Muslims and their misrepresentation is addressed, ultimately encountering Islamophobia.

(VII) Unite with international organizations to control Islamophobia

Muslim countries should integrate with international organizations such as United Nations to combat Islamophobia. The UN should declare a day in every year to raise awareness about Islam and spread measures to address this issue.

(VIII) Build alliances with marginalized groups

Muslims should build alliances with other religions and communities which are alienated and marginalized. Both alliances should work together against phobia and hatred by the public.
