

Q #4:

Corrections:

- v- All kinds of stationery is sold here
- vi- There have always been a fight between devil and divine
- ii- If I knew the answers, I would pass the examination.
- viii- The mother was searching herself in her young daughter
- vii- A little elegance is left in these arrogant youth.

Q #5:

B. Prepositions:

- ii- I am broke with him because he is a selfish friend.
- iv- Every candidate tries to pull out each voter.
- viii- He is leaning with the wall as he is not feeling well.
- vi- The thief did not swear to God.
- v- The poor live on their honest wages.

A. Punctuation:

A boy was gathering berries from a hedge, when his hand was stung by a nettle, smarting with the pain. He ran to tell his mother and said to her, "between his sobs, I only touched it ever so lightly, mother?" "That is why you got stung my son," she said, "if you have grasped it firmly, it would not have hurt you in the least."

Q #6:

i- Black and blue:

The mob beat the thief black and blue.

vii- Keep fingers crossed:

You will be succeeded, keep your fingers crossed.

iv- Carry coal to New castle:

My job was as hard as carry coal to new castle.

vi- Bad hair day:

After the cut, I apply colour seems bad hair day.

iii- Drawn a blank:

It is drawn a blank to satisfy you.

B: Pair of words:

iii- Monitor:

Cameras were placed to monitor gathering.

Mentor:

My mentor suggest me to write more.

vii- Beneficent:

Allah Almighty is beneficent and merciful.

Beneficial:

It's beneficial for health to walk daily.

ii- Valet:

I called my valet to help me.

Variety:

You should variety hobbies.

Q # 7:

Translation:

Some aspirants of competitive examination thought that by gazing the book covers and by placing notes below the pillow they will become topper. These are the people, who look for someone to pray, after two days of preparation. Truth is, no one has a magic stick and there is no shortcut to success. For remarkable results need remarkable efforts. So for next time when you hold a cup of tea and thinking "should I study or not" remember that success comes from hardwork, not from joke.

Q # 3:

Comprehension:

Q # 1: What can be fossil fuels?

Ans: Author feels that, ~~comp~~ rely on renewable energy production compared to traditional fossil fuels is environment friendly is a narrative. Vast use of solar panels, wind turbines, and electric vehicles needs more land is threat to forests and wildlife, secondly for solar panels and wind turbines there is a need of rare earth metals that involves environmental damaging mining practice. Thirdly their disposal is challenge and toxic waste will harm the environment.

Q#2: How far electric friendly?

Ans: Author feels that electric vehicles are not environment friendly because mining of nickle, cobalt and lithium cause destruction of habitat, soil contamination and a lot of water usage. Secondly, electricity is require to charge them by use of fossil fuels that diminish the benefit. Lastly there disposal is a great challenge, as improper recycling leads to toxic waste. So according to author EVs are not complete solution to reduce the pollution.

Q#3: What challenge is associated ends?

Ans: According to the author renewable energy systems like, solar panel, wind turbines and electric vehicles have finite life span, ranging from 20 - 30 years, after that their disposal is a challenge, resulting in accumulation of toxic waste. Without managing waste influx, the green promise of renewable energy starting tarnish.

Q#4: Why does the phase?

Ans: Author states that, renewable energy systems are not immune to pollution during their operational phase. Their reliance on battery storage that is environmental challenge. The ions use in batteries are source of environmental degradation and against the human rights. Additionally it requires a vast area of land which results in deforestation and threat to ecosystem.

Q#5: How does the ----- energy?

Ans: In this article, author states that, renewable energy is not the silver bullet for saving the planet. It is not a perfect solution and also requires careful management and realistic expectation. Only by acknowledging its limitations we can harness its potential responsibly.

Q#2: Précis:

Cunning minds of politicians.

Politicians are not there for help but dexterous evasion. In governance, their antics form riveting spectacle. When leaders face simple inquiries, they use phrases, that shows intellect and speaking power. No one can dare to question them. Before elections they promise generously but once ballots are counted all promises are forgotten. One should appreciate their words power and tears before public is nothing more than comedy. Politicians portray their well-timed photo-op is greater power. They self preserve themselves in a way, change political environment and control their scandals is like olympian. Politicians seems less about serving and portray their perfect image.

Passage words app: 298

Précis word: 102