

Pakistan's Economic future: can the country achieve Sustainable growth?

Outline

1 Introduction

Thesis Statement

Pakistan Economic future can not achieve Sustainable growth because Pakistan face many challenges like Mismangement of resources, corruption, inadequate funds, inaccountability. To address these challenges through some factors.

2 Challenges that face Pakistan in Economic growth.

- a) Mismangement of Natural resources.
- b) Inadequate funds in industry, Agriculture & education
- c) corruption at all level of institutes
- d) climate impacts the growth of economy.

3 How to address economic challenges

- a) Equale division of Natural resources
- b) Reduce red tip in all instide and develop Sustainability and accountability
- c) Reduce climate issues.
- d) Address economic challenges through attract foreign investors.
- e) increas funding For industry, education and Agriculture
- f) Economic challenges reduce through local government

Conclusion.

Introduction

Economic growth without investment in human development is unsustainable and unethical - Amartya Sen -

According to Amartya Sen, economic growth without investment in human development is unsustainable and unethical. Therefore, Pakistan face many issues in economic growth because Pakistan spent less funds on education up to 2% and other ~~factor~~ sectors.

Economic growth in Pakistan face many challenges. To address these challenges through some factors such as equal distribution of funds and equal distribution of natural resources. Similarly economic growth become sustainable due to Political stability and local government. Additionally, local government play important role in the collection of taxes and reduce the economic crisis.

Moreover, through accountability and transparency can ensure the economic crisis. Economic growth is the backbone of Pakistan development and growth. Therefore, government need to focus on economic growth and reduce the economic crisis. Hence, economic growth is the key factor to develop the

Sustainable development

Conclusion.

In conclusion, Pakistan economic can not develop sustainable growth because Pakistan face ~~an~~ many challenges such as inadequate funds, inaccountability and Political instability. Therefore, Pakistan need to address these challenges and overcome the economic crisis.

Additionally, Economy is the backbone of country. Therefore without ~~an~~ economic development it is impossible to develop sustainable growth. Hence, Sustainable growth plays important role in reduce the economic crisis.