told him that he had been terminated the previous day and asked if Bob could believe it. Bob explained in surprise, asking if Jake had been terminated and why, stating that <sup>he</sup> thought that Jake was doing well in his role. John explained there had apparently been some budget cuts, and they had to let a few people go. He said it was really fortunate. Bob expressed that it was terrible, mentioning that Jake had been there for years, and asked how Jake was taking it. John replied that Jake wasn't taking it too well, understandably, and was shocked and frustrated. He said he had tried to reach out to offer support, but Jake was still processing everything. Bob sighed, saying that was too hard.
