QUESTION - 7

Some of the students of competitive examination use to think that they will become toppers merely by staring at the cover of the book or putting their notes under the pillow in the night. They are the people who search for the references even in the papers, ~~and~~ after just two days of preparation. The truth is that neither anyone has a "magic wand" nor the "short-cut" of success. ~~Remarkable~~ if remarkable results are required, then the remarkable hardwork is also required. So next time, when you are holding a "cup of tea" and thinking "either I should study or not", remember at ~~that~~<sup>the</sup> time that the success doesn't comes from fear ~~of~~ but by hardwork.
