Q1- Translation:

Life doesnot ^{always} follow a straight path. When we used to be care free in childhood, every moment seemed to be for joy and play. But stepping into adulthood, the weight of reality made us realize aware of our responsibilities. The dreams we once held, sometimes come true and sometime are out of reach.

Those who reflect on their past mistakes, they lay strong foundation for future. Value the present, because the moment we have right now, that can change our destiny. Remember, time never stops for anyone, but those who value the time, are rewarded with opportunities of success.
