

Q1. Translate the following passage into English by keeping in view figurative/idiomatic expressions.

→ TRANSLATION

Life does not follow the same tract always. In the childhood, when we were carefree, every moment seemed to play and to enjoy. But after becoming mature, the reality made us aware of our responsibility. The aspirations of the past, which we dreamt of, are sometime becoming reality and sometime unending stories. Those who learn from the past experiences lay strong foundation of the future. Value your time, because the current moment can change our destiny. Remember, time waits for none, but time opens the door of opportunities to ~~those~~ that one who values his time.
