

Question different type of feminism and their contribution in elevating socio-economic status of women globally.

Introduction :-

Feminist ideology is to represent the women ^{must have} efficient status in the society at all aspects. Feminist contribute to support women globally at socio-economic perspective - liberal, radical, marxist and intersectional feminism are the theories which emphasizes on the inequality, violence and unmen behavior with the women.

Women Status in Education and Health:

Liberal Feminism :-

Education

According to liberal feminism the women should provided with equal rights, historically and even now women are treated as an object. The feminist Shelia Leberman determines that female are just for the objective position and for example the

Health

According to liberal feminism women are provided with unequal distribution of health resources. Even though ^{since time} male is more prominent for the men as compare to women and some other inequalities also and the other narratives

 "Aurat ko parh kay kiya karna hai sirf rotiyon hi pakari hai" - Women are dragged towards third class and not adorned with educational facilities.

Gender Bias in U.S. in comparison of feminism
 Marxist Feminism:

Education

Marxists think that male are the leaders and they should guarantee with the educational field and of high wages so that women always discriminate and provided with teaching and nurses profession and subjects of education and home economics.

Radical Feminism:

Education

Radical feminists persuade that women are provided with unequal educational resources due to patriarchal educational considered. For example the society even don't know about the post mortem depression and PCOs in women. They even don't want to know and considered such things as stereotypes.

Health

Marxists argued that men provided with the best medical because he is the breadwinner of family and women always referred as home chores and labour work.

Health

According to radical feminism; women have maternal health issues as well as other system even though the curriculum belongs to men, very few women are appointed for its arrangement and if yes then they are patriarchal ideologies. Teachers are even gender biased.

health issues but society do unequal favour to them. For example in Rural areas women not provided with money, so that they do come their health related issues and even women die because of this inequality.

According to WHO, out of 100, 60 women died due to their family unequal behaviour in health perspective.

Women Status in economy; Gender inequality and Economic Disparity.

Liberal Feminism:

Mean

"Aurat ka kam hai bus bachay palna"

liberal feminists define the women status globally that they are treated just for the home chores and as sex objects. According to liberal if women equally provided the economic rights then they are overburdened i.e. home chores are just for the women. Yes Shummy stated that in gender perspective there is lagged adaptation in which women are over burdened. Even though women are not provided with equal wages on male i.e. teachers in government school having female staff is less paid as compare to male staff in same school - Gender Quota

Market Feminism:

Market feminism considered that wage disparity in India because male always considered as breadwinners and female as her home women and for children brought up. This can be organized the status of these women who want to earn and single mother as well as provider for her family. Women are just commercialized, marketised and used as beautification - According to Forster A, high unemployment, exits under education women and wage disparities - At one place Katamany argues that

"Women Suppressed and under paid jobs given to them".

Radical Feminism :-

Radical feminist think that this society is patriarchal and every institute also belongs to patriarchal ideology.

"Aunt bahar kamany jaygi to pala nah kida jaygi"

Such narrativity subjugated women and women don't earn and even provided with equal pocket money - for example girls are provided with less pocket money due to Charadroni concept. As well as at other ~~assess~~ men provided with large amount of pocket money because he lives in society externally.

Women Status in Common Society

liberal feminists think that there is no equal identification to women as men. Even though they are for the Topon outcomes. Domestic violence belongs to them according to WHO, out of 3, 2 served for domestic violence.

Radical Feminism:

In this patriarchal society, women suppressed badly. Charadroni and unpaid as well as according to WHO, out of 3, 2 served for domestic violence. keeping their identity undermine.

Intersectionalist Feminism.

According to their perspective women not only marginalized due to gender but also subjugated by color, creed, cast and even because of their existence.

"Is larki ka to rang hi kala hai, is say len Shadi karey ga"

Conclusion:

Thus, different feminist theories determined that women are subjugate and oppressed both and the treatment with them has improved but not necessarily full completely good for this women must be self-empowered, give voice to their faced challenges and government must support their problems and empowers them.

(ii) Globalization and women.

Globalization with the time providing opportunities to the women so that they can prevail their industry in multi-aspects and institution i.e. society, economy, politics, education and health.

Media played a significant role in recognizing the diseases related to women i.e. Post menom depression and PMS.

In which women depressed at some extent level after delivery that she even killed her young one. Some teenagers and movements by CNN and ECSC also conducted so that multi-faceted approaches can be done to overcome the challenges ~~done~~ on the faced by women and they were supported and motivated.

Education and health facilities are more so that women starting to be opportunities related with the women

Globalization toward the women and in social, political and economical considerations along with the patriarchal surroundings. There is inequality in the attitude of extremists because the abolition of women in globe prepares to think their about their development and excellence. Globalization educate the women about their rights so that violence eradicated for those who know their self-esteem. In middle-east culture due to restriction of west, New the women start to wear minimal western clothes so that community also starts to accept that despite of some extremists and religious. The modernity spread in the views of society so that they considered women beyond the sexual and commercialized object.

Globally women starts to do partnership e.g. in african set budget and funds from world bank and international Agencies recruit locally sell women. So that in short globalization has positive impact on women to provide opportunities in all aspects of life.

Discuss different Feminin in 21st century needs the concerns of all genders and sexual orientation. Discuss the statement will referres to contemporary Feminin.

Introduction:-

Despite of the fact that women there is inequality in the gender. Feminin still working in 21st century for the needs to concerns of all genders and sexual orientation in contemporary concerns. i.e. intersectional Feminin aspects, gender identity and sexuality, queer feminin and men's problems. It can be understood by multi faulted approach at social, political and economical level.

Intersectional Feminin:-

This is the term coined by Kimberle Crenshaw in 1980s which recognizes ^{despite} gender identities, social identities also treated unique women of discrimination. Intersectionality divert the focus on singleness of gender, consider how systems oppres individuals differently depending upon their various identities. For example Black women, queer people and transgenders experience gender based discrimination in ways that they are differ from in-gender white women. This feminin now seeks to address these layered issues found on marginalized groups with in 'feminist spaces'.

Gender Identity and Sexuality:

Another critical area where feminin evolved is gender identity and sexuality. The feminist movement of 21st century has more influence of transgender and non-binary individuals who historically are looked and ignored. In Pakistan "Hijra" harrors been recognized and quechen identity by providing national identity card and enrollment in gender quota system. Feminin embracing the idea that gender is a spectrum and it works to support individuals despite of traditional binary gender roles.

Queer Feminin:

Creates structures are considered as normative and exotic. But

According to queer theory it is beyond binary - sexuality and tried to advocate the rights of LGBTQ+ individuals. They critique to the heteronormative as well as gender-binary society, promoting a vision that every gender has right to live well freely, express their identities without fear of discrimination & oppression. Queer theory highlights those individuals who are discriminated nowadays with the societal traditional norms and it demands reevaluation of the diversity of experiences with in broader feminist movement.

#The topic:-

It is an example that how contemporary feminism has expanded and address issues beyond gender, while unitarily focused on sexual harassment and assault - It been a global conversation about power dynamics, equality and systematic abuse, and the ways in which different groups experience oppression. This movement prioritized issues of belief marginalized women.

Genet Men's Issue:

Despite the patriarchal society in the globe, Not only women but men also persistently become a target. In such harsh economic environments as individual (men) not provide the family fully - he become feared and have many physical as well as mental issues - Heart attack rate in man is more than woman (WHO) so that men's issue must be advocated along with the issues of other gender for social stability.

Conclusion:

In, 21st century, the debate of issues are beyond the gender - gender with as the same gender not only discrimination factors are gained which is very importantly need to be solved otherwise it become a severe issue between social solidarity, social stability as well as welfare of mankind.
