Q7.

The most pleasant scent of the world lies the joy of heart, not a garden. Sometimes, we search for it in the valuables of our life, but in reality the biggest joy is the one that comes from the depth of our heart. This joy lies in the moment when we feel spiritual peace ~~at~~ on achieving our successes, not in any official or luxurious life. We often ignore our simplest joys and keep searching for bigger successes. But when we listen to our heart, we realize that real happiness lies in the things that can be achieved easily.

Q2. Precis:

The art of oratory has diminished in significance over time, which was once regarded as a task of
