Q No. 1

Life never goes on a straight track in childhood when we were careless every moment we perceived every moment as the moment of joy and playfulness. But as we reached adulthood, reality made us realize our responsibilities. Dreams of the past that we saw now either become reality or starts that are far away. Those who learn from their past mistakes they make a solid foundation.

of the future. Present should be valued because the moment we have today can only change our destiny. Remember this, time never waits for anyone but the one who values time, time opens the door of success for him.
