Narration

John asked Bob that has he heard the news about Jake. Bob replied that he has not, and enquired what has happened to which John answered that Jake got terminated the day before, and further asked Bob if he could believe it. Bob astonishingly replied that he thought Jake was doing well in his role. John explained that unfortunately there were some budget cuts and the company had to let a few people <sup>leave</sup> go. Bob sighed and said that it was terrible as Jake had been in the company for years. Bob further enquired that how was Jake taking it.

John replied that Jake was not too well obviously, and that Jake was shocked and frustrated. John further added that he tried to reach out to offer support, but Jake was still processing everything. Bob said with frustration that it was too hard for Jake and hoped that Jake bounces back soon. As it has always been tough when someone you have known for so long has to go through this. John affirmed and further added that it's a tough reality, but they will miss him in the office. He further wished for Jake that he lands on his feet soon.
