Question - 1

Translation of the passage into English.

زندگی ہمیشہ سیدھے راستے پر نہیں چلتی
..... دروازے کھول دیتی ہے۔

Life never follows a straight path. When we were children, life seemed to be carefree, every moment of joy and play. But as we stepped into youth, the burden of reality made us realize of our responsibilities. Our past dreams, that we once cherished, now sometimes change to reality and other time remain as the distant stars. Value the present, because the moment we have right now can change our destiny. Remember, time waits for none, but those who value time, find it opening the doors to success for them.
