

English Precise and Composition

Test - 2

QNo. 1

Translate passage into English

Life does not always follow a straight path. In childhood, when we were carefree, every moment seemed like a time for joy and play. But as we stepped into adulthood, the weight of reality made us aware of our responsibilities. The dreams of the past, which we once cherished, sometimes become reality and sometimes remain distant stars. Those who learn from past mistakes build a strong foundation for the future.

Value the present, because the moment we have now is the one that can change our destiny. Remember, time waits for no one, but those who value it find success knocking at their doors.
