

Q1

Life is not always a piece of cake. In childhood days, when we had nothing to worry about, every moment appeared conducive for playing and happiness. However, as the youth stepped in, the burden of realities made us ^{realise} our responsibilities. The dreams of past, which we had conceived, sometimes see the day of light and other times are miles away. Those who learn from their mistakes lay a foundation for a robust future. Take care of your present because the moment we have can turn around our fortunes. Do remember, time waits for no one, but whoever is honest to their time, the latter opens up the pathways of success for them.
