

M. Usama Saleem

The Paralysis of Justice in Pakistan.

Outline:

a) Introduction.

The weak justice in Pakistan has created mistrust in every sector of life. When the person who cheated in some way is not punished under law, it makes society unliveable. It is high time to make laws and do necessary reforms to make the justice accessible to all citizens.

b) Pakistan's Justice system in crises.

c) Causes of justice's downfall.

i) Corruption in institutions.

ii) Manipulation of judicial system decisions due to political interference.

iii) Poor access of justice for financially poor people.

iv) Outdated legal framework delays case.

v) Absence of effective accountability mechanism.

vi) Lack of political will by successive governments.

d) Impacts of Justice Paralysis.

i) Erosion of public trust.

ii) People start to take justice into their own hands.

iii) Increase in human rights violation.

iv) Increase in social division.

e) Solutions to recover justice's paralysis.

i) Judicial reforms to introduce faster procedural mechanism.

ii) Ensuring judicial independence to prevent political interference.

iii) Promoting social justice initiatives.

iv) Integration of technology by implementing e-courts.

v) Enhanced political commitment to push for reforms.

f) Conclusion.