

Test 2

~ (Question No. 3) ~

1. She is passionate about helping others achieve their goals.
2. The book was written by a famous author in the 18th century.
3. He walked over the bridge to reach the park on the other side.
4. The child hid the candy under the bed, hoping no one would find it.
5. He succeeded in his mission despite all odds.
6. The discussion turned to the impacts of climate change on wildlife.
7. We need to arrive at the station no later than 9:00 am.
8. The shop is located at the Corner of Main Street and Park Avenue.

9. I agree with your point of view to some extent.

10. She took responsibility for organizing the event.

~ (Question No. 2) ~

Correction

4. If I study hard, I will pass the exam.

6. The list of items on the table.

7. The solution to the problem was simpler than expected.

1. While I was driving down
the road, a beautiful sunset was visible.

3. He didn't go to the party, nor did he want to stay at home.

~ (Question No. 4) ~

i. Under the weather

You are really under the weather. Are you ill?

ii. Hit the nail on the head

While everyone was talking about the current economic situation of Pakistan during policy formation, he hit the nail on the head by presenting a solution.

iii. Bite the bullet

Pakistan bit the bullet even in bad circumstances of wars.

iv. The best of both worlds

Economists are the best of both worlds, as they can balance the theoretical insight of academic research with the practical demands of policy-making.

iv. Beat around the bush

During the debate, the politician:

kept beating around the bush instead of addressing the real issues facing by the country.

~ (Question No. 1) ~
Translation

Life does not always stay on right path. In childhood, when we were carefree, every moment felt like a time of joy and play. But as soon as we stepped into adulthood, the weigh of reality made us realize our responsibilities. The dreams of the past, which we had cherished, sometimes becomes reality and sometimes remain just pipe dreams. Those who learn from the mistakes of the past lay a strong foundations for the future. Value

the present because the moment
we have right now is the one that can change our fate.
Remember time waits for no
who, but those who value
time, it opens the doors
of success for them.