

General guideline.
Maintain the tone of the topic
Answer the asked part
Pay attention to the tense of the topic and the given keywords
Follow the outline exactly as it is
Provide substantial research-backed evidence.
Use formal language always
No use of 1st and 2nd person pronouns.
Maintain unity of idea in a single paragraph.

Day: _____

How to decode and attempt the topic

Topic: Transgender Identity and Family Dynamics: Complexities of Acceptance and Rejection

Simple explanatory topic. Discuss how complexities of acceptance and rejection regarding transgender identity shape family dynamics (this could be your only heading and you can write 14-15 points on this, you can write 7-8 points on acceptance and rejection each). OR. Write impacts of Acceptance and rejection (6 each) on family dynamics and how to ensure positive outcomes. (2-3).

Outline:

Outline has no structure. Section the outline into headings and subheadings depending on what aspect of topic is being discussed

1. Introduction
2. Transgender in Pakistan
3. Transgender acceptance in Pakistani Society.
4. Transgender and their legal Identification
5. Rights of Transgender in Pakistan.
6. International Institutions and transgender Identification.
7. Concept of the Gender identity
8. Concept of Gender diversity
9. Trans Women and men
10. Educational families and Acceptance of transgender.
11. Ending the social stigma as the transgender.
12. Many Countries accepting the transgender identity.
13. Transgender becoming the role models in the world.
14. Role of Social Media in Recognition of transgender identity.
15. conclusion.

The topic is not about Pakistan. Don't make it about Pakistan.

Other than the one circled none of the points relate to family dynamics.

This is a completely irrelevant and unstructured outline. The examiner is not going to read your essay beyond this point. Basic grammar and structure are being evaluated.

Date: No proper opening of the topic. No attention grabber no hook.

Day: _____

Try to capture the attention of the reader by starting in a more catchy manner using literary devices

In traditional, backward and religious societies like Pakistan, the concept of rights regarding Transgenders or LGBTQIA+ people are not established equally among the transgender or LGBTQIA+ persons. In fact, a transgender person is treated as a curse in such a society which considers it a bad and unnatural man. It is a biological abnormality occurred during the formative stage of an embryo in the female womb.

Also this is specific to Pakistan

That's intersex people. Not transgenders.

This does not Overview the essay. This Is the perception of what Transgender is in backward Societies.

In fact, the person is born in such a way. As a citizen or a human being they are and should be entitled to have the same and equal rights like other citizens or human beings have in the society or in a country provided by the law of land. However, now a days the issue of transgender or LGBTQIA+ and gender identity is popular growing in the young generations. young people choosing the identity whatever they like which is causing a problem for a society.

This is not a proper introduction. No proper structure. Also it is too short. Introduction should be 200-250 words.

Not the domain of the current discussion

The transgender is a part of the whole gender identities which is known as LGBTQIA+ i.e. lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and intersex and questioning. The transgender identity is properly recognized in some

Directly address the argument in the topic sentence

Countries which is mostly western countries while ~~the Islamic countries like Pakistan~~ and Saudi Arabia and some other countries identify the transgender persons but it is still consider to be a taboo or a social stigma is attached to it.

This does not correspond to the respective heading. There is no point being discussed here.

No claim made, no point proven.

Pakistan being a religious country has religious customs and norms which prohibits or dislike transgender or LGBTQ+ people because they are different from others and born with a biological fault. Moreover, there is always discrimination and disapproval of the transgender and LGBTQ+ people or community in our society. The transgender people or community usually do not get job easily in an office, or proper education, proper health care and proper protection according to the law of the country.

Irrelevant to the topic
No argumentation
No analysis.

No point to the paragraph.

As far as the rights of transgenders are concerned, the state tried its full to give the basic fundamental right to a transgender person. The Pakistan Constitution, 1973 give fundamental right to all the citizens and people regarding, sex, race, colour or caste. Further there is an act known as transgender person (protection of rights) act 2018 which protects the rights of transgender.

The Act says that the rights of transgender are protected, ensures transgender people's fundamental rights to inheritance, education, employment, vote, hold public office, health, assembly and access to public space and property. Moreover, it confirms that they should enjoy all the rights which are guaranteed to a normal citizen.

However, transgender people are treated differently, at least on paper. Pakistani citizens who are transgender or a member of the third gender are a recognized minority group and thus entitled to certain civil rights. According to a report which was released by International Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Trans and Intersex Association (ILGABA and Europe ILGA) stated that, 45% of Pakistani think that transgender and other identities should enjoy the same rights as straight people do; while 36% disagrees and rest are undecided. In addition 49% think that they should be protected in workplace and discrimination. Furthermore 49% of Pakistani think that transgender should enjoy all fundamental rights and 51% believed that they should be protected in workplace and 44% thinks that they should be allowed for change their legal gender.

No relation to the topic
No coherent argument
No analysis

The Gender identity refers to each person's deeply felt internal and individual experience of gender, which may or may not correspond with the sex assigned at birth time, including the personal sense of the body (which may involve, if freely chosen, modification of bodily appearance or function by medical, surgical or other means and other expressions of gender, including dress, speech and manners. This is enforcing that in present time, a person can change its gender identity as he/she wants to do it. we cannot judge a person by its name or appearance or to a gender.

~~According to United Nation,~~

Don't start the paragraph with a reference or an evidence.

~~Human Rights, the gender diverse is used to refer to persons whose gender identity, including their gender expression, is at odds with what is perceived as being the gender norm in a particular context at a particular point in time, including who do not place them in male/female binary. The more specific term 'trans' is used to describe persons who identify with a different sex than the one assigned to them at birth. It simply means that, now a day, changing the gender it is in the~~ hand of that specific person. The gender, is nature and modified. Some people born as transgender, some does the modification and change the gender.

The 'trans', a gender identity and umbrella term for people whose gender differs from, or does not sit comfortably with, the gender they were assigned at birth. According to the international organization known as Amnesty, A trans woman is a woman who was assigned male at birth. A transgender woman 'lives as a woman at present time, but was thought to be male when she was born.

A trans man, a person who was registered as female at birth but who lives and identifies as a man.

As far as families and the acceptance is concerned, some families accept the transgender and some not mostly the open-minded liberal-feminist are accept the transgender and religious orthodox people and families not accept this. At the international level almost all the organizations, i.e. Amnesty and United Nations and some South Asia countries raising their voice to accept the transgender identity.

Sentence structure

No relation to the topic, no complexities of acceptance and rejection in family dynamics are discussed

While countries like Pakistan and other muslim countries do not promote gender identification which is not natural and modified. However Non-Governmental organizations raising their voice of the acceptance of transgender identity whether natural or modified. However, in most of the areas of Pakistan they face discrimination as by the state, state is trying to protect their right which are not recognized legally. Their rejection and acceptance is totally depend on the people personal wish and families of the transgender people. Some families do support the transgender and some do not support them.

According to world Economic forum, Spain is the country most supportive of transgender. Those who were younger and those with higher levels of income or education were generally more supportive of trans people. Other countries that have been praised for their trans rights which include states, like Moldova, Andorra, Finland and Iceland. These countries are western countries which mostly supports the transgender people.

with a new turning point, in which many transgender women are in high places in the world. with an estimated that 15 million transgender man and women according to the U.N. In India many transgender are working as inspector of municipal corporation, In Bangkok Ms. Holarapwanond which is working in modelling industry, from his remarkable example. Many transgender around the world Thailand, Russia, Spain, Sweden and Philippines join the Apple Model management. Nonetheless, in Pakistan the Sara Gill Pakistan first transgender doctor which is mostly recognized by everyone. So its mean in internationally and national level the transgender being accepted and the complexities are being remove their more education to the youngsters.

No consistency in paragraph length. All paragraphs should be between 120-150 words.

The Social media, has played an very crucial role in promoting the community of transgenders, or the grievances of transgenders are being coming to the public fronts and the state more get concern to the protection of rights of transgenders. Moreover families and normal society and citizens are getting a good knowledge of about transgender, this created to a quite acceptance in the heart of a normal citizen. like Mehrub Awan who is a activities of trans-gender community.

In the end, the transgender community is being accepted by the Pakistani and international societies in both. The taboo is still present in some countries and place where it can be less with the time. As the education and awareness bring things to a understandable place the acceptance to some extent also concern with the person opinion and family upbringing. However, in educated and in civilised society this transgender are being recognised and accepted.

Not a proper conclusion. Does not follow proper structure

Also short. Conclusion should be 180-190 words.

word count = 1600 Approximately.

Very short you need at least 2000-2200 words.

culture know